Clients success stories

Recipharm, Head of Sterile Operations

« Recrutis agency helped us to staff a new sterile manufacturing workshop during the challenging pandemic period. They worked with our site HR as one team, always listening to our needs and challenging us where appropriate (...) building a trustful partnership. And they bring in fantastic candidates! » Claus Tollnick

KBI Biopharma, VP Manufacturing Operations

« I was delighted with Recrutis' services in recruiting talent for our Geneva site. Thanks to Fabrice Cattant and his committed teams, Recrutis was able to identify and guide/advise on strategies (...) to succeed in the important challenges of starting up our new biotech production site. I highly recommend their services.» Marc Vouillamoz

Ferring International, Senior Director, Head of Global Technical Operations Strategy & Excellence

« Thanks to Recrutis, my team has been successfully growing up with the addition of the right talent. His Operational Excellence background has been decisive ! » Jérôme Repiton

Yposkesi, CEO

« I have worked with Recrutis over the past years for several recruitments, some of them hard to fill positions. (...) we have been very happy with the services provided, and recommend Recrutis as a recruitment company for any hiring needs in the area of biotech / life Sciences. » Alain Lamproye

SP Groups, Fondateur

« Thanks to the responsiveness and understanding of Fabrice Cattant. SP Groups has succeeded in recruiting more than 10 people who are now driving the company's success and growth. Thank you for this successful partnership. » Fabrice Dumont

Aptissen, VP of Human Resources

« I recently worked with Recrutis for a key role in our organization and can highly recommend the Recrutis team. The position was a punctual, confidential and technically demanding recruitment, but the team were able to identify and propose several quality candidates in record time, thanks to their network and responsiveness. They took the time to visit us to understand our needs and the organization's culture (...). » Charlotte Cadoux
